HIGHER EDUCATION ACT, 1997 (Act No. 101 of 1997)

INSTITUTIONAL STATUTE

NELSON MANDELA METROPOLITAN UNIVERSITY

I, Dr Bonginkosi Emmanuel Nzimande, MP, Minister of Higher Education and Training, in accordance with section 33(1) of the Higher Education Act, 1997 (Act No. 101 of 1997), hereby publish the Institutional Statute of the Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University set out in the Schedule hereto.

Dr BE Nzimande, MP
Minister of Higher Education and Training
Date: 21/11/2014

STATUTE

NELSON MANDELA

METROPOLITAN UNIVERSITY

SCHEDULE

To introduce a Statute for the Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University to give effect to the Higher Education Act, 1997 (Act 101 of 1997), as amended, and to promote the effective governance and management of the University in respect of matters not expressly prescribed by the said Act.

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS the Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University has come into being through the incorporation of the Port Elizabeth Campus of the Vista University into the University of Port Elizabeth and the subsequent merger of the University of Port Elizabeth and the Port Elizabeth Technikon by notices issued in this regard by the Minister of Education in terms of Sections 24¹ and 23(1)², respectively, of the Higher Education Act, 1997 (Act 101 of 1997), as amended;

and

WHEREAS it is desirable for the Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University to be a dynamic African university, recognised for its leadership in generating cutting-edge knowledge for a sustainable future by offering a diverse range of quality educational opportunities that will make a critical and constructive contribution to regional, national and global sustainability;

[and

WHEREAS it is necessary to provide for the regulation of the Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University in compliance with the provisions of the Higher Education Act, 1997 (Act 101 of 1997), as amended.]

THEREFORE the Council of the Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University has made this Statute in terms of section 32(1) of the Higher Education Act, 1997 (Act 101 of 1997), as amended, to ensure the effective governance and management of the University in respect of those matters not expressly prescribed by the said Act in order to achieve its goals and values.

 - (d) two members of the senate elected by the senate in accordance with paragraph 7;
 - (e) one academic employee elected by such employees in accordance with paragraph 8;
 - (f) two students elected by the students' representative council in accordance with paragraph 9; and
 - (g) one employee, other than an academic employee, elected by such employees in accordance with paragraph 8.
- (2) At least one of the members referred to in each of subparagraphs 1(d) and (f) must be from the designated groups as contemplated in the Employment Equity Act.
- (3) The members of the council contemplated in section 27(4)(h) of the Act are –
- (a) twelve members appointed by the council in accordance with the rules;
 - (b) two members of the alumni association elected by the alumni association in accordance with paragraph 10; and
 - (c) the chairperson of the institutional forum.

- (4) (a) The members of the council must be persons –
 - (i) with knowledge and experience in fields relevant to the objects and governance of the University and public higher education institutions, in general;
 - (ii) with a good community standing; and
 - (iii) with adequate capacity to diligently discharge their duties to the council.
- (b) The appointment of the members of the council is subject to section 27(5B) of the Act.
- (5) The council, with due regard to subparagraph (4)(a)(i), determines the relevant knowledge and experience required of the members contemplated in subparagraphs (3)(a) and (b) to ensure the effective functioning of the council.
- (6) A candidate nominated in terms of subparagraphs (3)(a) and (b) -
 - (a) may not be an employee or student of the University;
 - (b) may not have a conflict of interest with the University; and
 - (c) must meet the relevant knowledge and experience requirements contemplated in subparagraph (5).
- (7) A member of the council who enters into a contract with the University in terms of which he or she is to receive regular remuneration from the University must forthwith vacate his or her seat on the council.
- (8) At least 60 per cent of the members of the council must be persons who are not employees or students of the University.
- (9) A member appointed in terms of subparagraphs (1)(c) or (3)(a) and (b), who becomes a student or an employee of the University, forthwith ceases to be a member of the council.
- (10) (1) The members of the council are appointed in their personal capacity to act in the best interests of the University and not as representatives of the entities which elected them to the council.

- (2) A member of the council must, before he or she assumes office, declare –
 - (a) any business, commercial or financial activities undertaken for financial gain that may cause a conflict or possible conflict of interest with the University;
 - (b) whether he or she, has in the past, been involved in activities that could call into question his or her own reputation and/or damage the reputation of the council; and
 - (c) he or she has, in terms of current work commitments and/or other commitments, the capacity to diligently discharge his or her duties to the council.
- (11) (1) The council may –
 - (a) invite persons, who are not members of the council, to attend meetings of the council for the discussion of a particular item or items on the agenda only; or
 - (b) co-opt a person, who is not a member of the council, for a period of time as determined by the council.
- (2) The persons contemplated in subparagraph 1(a) and (b) may take part in the deliberations of council but may not vote.

Nomination of candidates for Ministerial appointment to council

- 6. (1) Whenever it is necessary for the Minister to appoint a person to the council as contemplated in section 27(4)(c) of the Act, the secretary to the council, by written notice, invites the members of the council to nominate in writing candidates to be considered for appointment by the Minister.
- (2) A nomination contemplated in subparagraph (1), together with a comprehensive curriculum vitae of the nominee, must be lodged with the secretary on a date determined by him or her.
- (3) Each nomination must be signed by at least two members of the council and countersigned by the nominee to denote his or her acceptance of the nomination.

- (4) At the ensuing meeting of the council, the council resolves by closed ballot by a majority of the members present, which nominations must be recommended to the Minister.
- (5) The provisions of paragraph 5(6) apply with the necessary changes to the nomination of candidates contemplated in subparagraph (4).
- (6) The secretary to the council submits the names of the candidates, together with all relevant documentation, to the Minister for consideration and appointment.

Election of senate members to council

7. (1) When it becomes necessary for the senate to elect one or more of its members to the council as contemplated in section 27(4)(d) of the Act, the secretary to the senate, by written notice, invites members of the senate to nominate in writing candidates for election and appointment to the council.
- (2) Each nomination must be lodged with the secretary at least two working days before the date of the meeting of the senate at which the election is to take place.
- (3) Each nomination must be signed by two members of the senate and must be countersigned by the nominee to confirm his or her acceptance of the nomination.
- (4) If no more candidates are nominated than the number of vacancies, the secretary declares such person or persons to be duly elected. If more candidates are nominated than the number of vacancies, an election is held at the meeting of the senate contemplated in subparagraph (2).
- (5) The senate elects the member of senate or members of senate to the council by closed ballot by a majority of the members present at the meeting of the senate.
- (6) If no candidate receives a majority of votes, successive rounds of voting are held.
- (7) In each successive round of voting the candidate receiving the fewest votes in the previous round of voting is eliminated as a candidate.

Election of employees to council

8. (1) Whenever it is necessary for the employees of the University to elect one or more employees to the council as contemplated in section 27(4)(e) and (g) of the Act, the secretary to the council, by written notice of at least ten working days, invites all permanent employees and fixed-term contract employees as described in the Rules to nominate in writing, by a date determined in the notice, one or more candidates to be elected as members of the council.
- (2) A nomination contemplated in subparagraph (1), together with an abridged curriculum vitae of the nominee, must be lodged in electronic format with the secretary to the council.
- (3) Each nomination must be signed by at least five employees contemplated in subparagraph (1) and countersigned by the nominee to denote his or her acceptance of the nomination.
- (4) If no more candidates are nominated than the number of vacancies, the secretary to the council declares such candidate or candidates to be duly elected. If more candidates are nominated than the number of vacancies, the secretary notifies in writing the employees contemplated in subparagraph (1) of the date for the election of the employees to the council.
- (5) The manner in which the election of employees to the council takes place is determined in the Rules.

Election of students to council

9. (1) Whenever it is necessary for a student or students to be elected to the council as contemplated in section 27(4)(f) of the Act, the secretary to the council notifies the president of the students' representative council accordingly.
- (2) The students' representative council elects the student or students to the council by means of a closed ballot and a majority of the members present at a meeting of the students' representative council.
- (3) The president of the students' representative council submits the name or names of the student or students elected to the secretary to the council by a date determined by the secretary.

Election of alumni association members to council

10. (1) The council, in ensuring the effective functioning of the council, determines, in accordance with the procedure provided for in the rules, the relevant knowledge and experience required of a member of the alumni association contemplated in paragraph 5(3)(b) to be elected to the council.
- (2) Whenever it is necessary for the alumni association to elect one or more of its members to the council such person is elected in the manner determined in the constitution of the alumni association.
- (3) The provisions of paragraph 5(6) apply to the eligibility of such member or members.

Term of office of council members

11. (1) Unless determined otherwise by the council, the term of office of members of the council –
- (a) who are not employees or students of the University is four (4) years;
 - (b) who are employees of the University, with the exception of the vice-chancellor and the deputy vice-chancellors who hold office for the duration of their employment, is three years; and
 - (c) who are student members is equivalent to the term of office of the students' representative council.
- (2) A member may serve more than one term of office as a council member.
- (3) The council may, upon expiry of the term of office of a member contemplated in subparagraph (1)(a), co-opt such person as a member of the council with voting rights for a period not exceeding six months for purposes of ensuring –
- (a) continued compliance of the council's composition with the Act and this Statute; and/or
 - (b) continuity in the performance of the council during such period.

Termination of membership and filling of vacancies

12. (1) A person ceases to be a member of the council if he or she –
- (a) resigns by giving written notice to the chairperson of the council;
 - (b) is absent from three consecutive ordinary meetings of the council without prior apology for absence having been made to the council;
 - (c) is declared insolvent by a court of law;
 - (d) is removed from an office of trust by a court of law or is convicted of an offence for which the sentence is imprisonment without the option of a fine;
 - (e) is declared unable to attend to his or her personal affairs by a court of law; or
 - (f) ceases to be a member of the constituency which elected him or her to the council, provided that the membership of a student ceases automatically when he or she ceases to be a registered student.
- (2) The council may suspend, take disciplinary action or terminate a member's membership in the manner prescribed in the rules.
- (3) Vacancies on the council as a result of death, resignation or other causes as contemplated in subparagraphs (1) and (2) are filled as prescribed in paragraphs 5 to 10 for a new full term of the relevant office, provided that in the case of a member of the council contemplated in paragraph 5(1)(f), such member be appointed for the unexpired term of office of his or her predecessor.
- (4) In the event of a vacancy on council for any reason, the secretary to the council must forthwith notify the entity that elected the member, requesting the entity to elect a successor to the council.

Chairperson and vice-chairperson

13. (1) (a) When it becomes necessary the council elects a chairperson and a vice-chairperson from amongst the members contemplated in paragraph 5(1)(c), and (3)(a) and (b), who each holds office for a period of two years.
- (b) The criteria applicable to candidates for the office of chairperson are determined by the rules.

- (2) The secretary to the council, by written notice, invites the members of the council to nominate in writing candidates for the office of chairperson or vice-chairperson.
- (3) A nomination contemplated in subparagraph (2), together with a curriculum vitae of the nominee, must be lodged with the secretary to the council on a date determined by him or her.
- (4) Each nomination must be signed by at least three members of the council and countersigned by the nominee to denote his or her acceptance of the nomination.
- (5) If not more than one candidate is nominated for one of the offices, the secretary declares such person to be duly elected. If more than one candidate is nominated for one of the offices, an election is held at a meeting of the council.
- (6) The vice-chancellor officiates as chairperson for the duration of the election of the chairperson of the council.
- (7) A candidate may only be elected to the office of chairperson or vice-chairperson by closed ballot by a majority of the members present.
- (8) If no candidate receives a majority of votes, successive rounds of voting are held.
- (9) In each successive round of voting the candidate receiving the fewest votes in the previous round of voting is eliminated as a candidate.
- (10) If a vacancy occurs in the office of chairperson or vice-chairperson for any reason, the provisions of subparagraphs (1) to (9) apply with the necessary changes to the filling of such vacancy.
- (11) The person elected in terms of subparagraph (10) holds office for the unexpired period of office of his or her predecessor.
- (12) The chairperson and vice-chairperson are eligible for re-election.

Secretary to council

- 14. (1) The secretary to the council is the registrar as contemplated in section 26(4)(b) of the Act.
- (2) The secretary acts as electoral and compliance officer at the meetings of the council.

- (3) The secretary attends all meetings of the council and the council committees and keeps all relevant documents of the council.

Committees of council

15. (1) The council appoints the following committees of the council -
- (a) an executive committee;
 - (b) a governance committee;
 - (c) a finance and facilities committee;
 - (d) a human resources and remuneration committee;
 - (e) an audit and risk committee;
 - (f) a higher education committee; and
 - (g) a nomination committee.
- (2) The council may, if deemed expedient for the effective functioning of the council, appoint committees of the council other than the committees contemplated in paragraph 15(1) and ad hoc committees of the council.
- (3) The composition and functions of the above council committees are contained in the rules of the council.

General provisions applicable to committees of council

16. (1) A committee of the council contemplated in paragraph 15(1) –
- (a) may make recommendations to the council regarding the appointment of members to the respective committees;
 - (b) may, for operational reasons, co-opt a member of the council, who is not a member of the committee, on such committee for a fixed period of time as a member with voting rights, subject to the approval of the executive committee of the council;
 - (c) may appoint an ad hoc or subcommittee to perform any of its functions on its behalf, provided that –
 - (i) a committee is not divested of the responsibility for the performance of any such function assigned or delegated to the ad hoc or subcommittee; and
 - (ii) any action resulting from such assignment or delegation is subject to the approval of the committee;
 - (d) makes, in terms of its delegated authority, decisions with a view to implementation on the matters determined in the rules of the council.

- (2) The chairperson of a committee of the council may not be an employee nor a student of the University.
- (3) At least 50% of the members of a committee of the council must be persons who are not employees or students of the University.
- (4) A committee of the council may, after consultation with such committee, be dissolved by the council on the recommendation of the governance committee of the council.
- (5) The council may appoint persons, who are not members of the council as members of committees of the council, subject to section 27 of the Act.
- (6) The provisions of paragraph 5(11) apply with the necessary changes to the committees of the council.
- (7) The provisions applicable to the meetings and meetings procedure of the council and the minutes of council meetings apply with the necessary changes to the committees of the council.
